Dear Major General Keefe,

As leaders, one area that I do not think any of us can train for, is the impact felt by the loss of one of our brave men or women during their deployment in Iraq or Afghanistan. We have had to deliver this devastating news to way too many families around the country. There is no mission harder than telling a family that their loved one has been lost. I believe that the greatest casualty of the war on terror has been the children left behind by parents who have made the ultimate sacrifice. They are easy to overlook, but as the voice of the National Guard, we must recognize their loss and do what we can to help provide them with the support necessary to achieve a bright future.

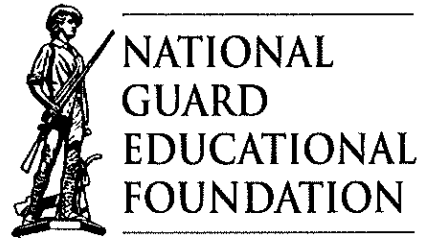

Leonardo DRS came to us several years ago with a desire to help the children of the fallen. Together, we developed a plan to create The Leonardo DRS Guardian Scholarship Fund, which provides up to $25,000 per student over a four-year college education. This fund is being financed by Leonardo DRS, with the National Guard Educational Foundation administering the application and selection process. Since the fund's inaugural year in 2011, we have awarded more than 75 scholarships.

The application deadline is June 30, 2019. Enclosed, you will find the guidelines, eligibility requirements, and application. I need your help in identifying families in your state where a parent was killed serving in OEF, OIF, or OND. I would ask that you contact the family directly and provide a copy of the application for their consideration. Applications and information can also be found at www.ngef.org.

Please let me know if we can count on your support. Every eligible student deserves an opportunity to apply. I am confident with your help and support this program will continue to be an enormous success moving forward.

Sincerely,

Brigadier General (Ret.) Roy Robinson
President
